Thank you for your time. We look forward to helping you achieve your health goals.

What to do when you arrive?

When you arrive at the clinic please check in with the main Reception desk as you enter the clinic, or proceed to our Naturopathic reception area. Our Naturopathic Receptionist will come greet you and give you an office tour. She will then bring you to the Naturopathic reception area in preparation to your appointment.

At subsequent appointments please make your way to the Naturopathic Reception to check-in and let us know you have arrived. Please make yourself comfortable in either reception area and enjoy a hot cup of herbal tea or coffee.

It is always our aim to be on time with your appointments. However, complications and emergencies do arise and in these circumstances we appreciate your patience and understanding. You also will receive the devoted time and care of your Naturopathic Doctor.

What to expect at visits

Your first appointment will last 1 1/2 hours. We will discuss your chief concerns and review your history and completed health forms. We will discuss relevant aspects of your lifestyle, beliefs and philosophy about health and healing, and any other issues that impact your wellness. We will also do a relevant physical exam and Naturopathic functional assessment. The Assessment may include but is not limited to EAV testing, Muscle Reflex Testing and Energetic screening. This in-depth assessment allows your Naturopathic Doctor to develop a thorough understanding of your current state of health, energy systems and vital force which will guide a program which is safe and effective for you.

Recommendations for relevant blood or lab work may take place. Your Naturopathic Doctor will outline to you how the many tools of Naturopathic Medicine can be used to help you reach your goals for health, recovery and wellness.

Your second visit will be approximately 30-45 minutes and will generally take place 3-4 weeks after your initial appointment. It will consist of relevant follow-up functional testing/evaluation and a discussion of findings in order to provide you with a diagnosis and appropriate treatment plan. Recommendations for any additional lab work may be made if necessary. If your healing needs require work with your energy systems or mental-emotional-spiritual focus, Quantum Energy Healing or Life Transformation Sessions may be suggested. See website under Services for details.

Most follow-up visits are 30 minutes and will be used to provide you with ongoing care, to monitor your progress and address any other concerns that may arise.

In the event that you require care for an acute concern between scheduled visits (ie. treatment for a cold or flu, checking a child's ear for infection, blood pressure check), we will make every effort to accommodate a same-day appointment for existing patients. Do not hesitate to call the clinic with questions or concerns at 519-273-0777.

We understand that there are unforeseen events and circumstances, and these will of course be taken into consideration. Our answering machine is available outside of business hours to take messages.

Acupuncture Meridian Assessment-“New” Medicine Based on Ancient Principles

Acupuncture, originating in China several thousand years ago, is known for alleviating pain and promoting healing. Acupuncture is based on the belief that the balance of the energy flow (Chi) through the meridians of the body is the essence of all living organisms for harmony and optimal health.

Meridians are “pathways” of energy flow through the body. Each meridian follows a very specific pathway that includes specific organs, tissues, muscles, and bones. There are hundreds of meridians throughout the body. Acupuncture uses very specific points on a meridian to influence the Chi, the health and vitality, of all the body elements on that meridian. When the chi, the energy flow, is blocked, the body is said to have an imbalance and will, sooner or later, suffer some sort of illness.

There are over 500 acupuncture points that have been established as having specific relationships with internal organs according to Traditional Chinese Medicine. A skilled physician can, in a short time, measure about 50 major Acupuncture points. He/she may discover not only which organs have problems but also the intricate relationships of causes and effects of internal and external disturbances. For example, dental infection might be the cause or effect of an arthritic pain and heart problem; wheat intolerance might be the cause of eczema or an intestinal problem.

So, what exactly is Acupuncture Meridian Assessment (AMA)? AMA simply uses an electronic device placed on acupuncture points to assess energy flow through the meridians of the body. AMA is called by various names such as EDS (Electrodermal Screening), Electro-acupuncture Biofeedback, and EAV (Electro-acupuncture according to Dr. Voll).

Dr. Reinhold Voll, MD, Internist and acupuncturist in Germany in the 1940’s, noticed changes in electrical conductivity at each of the body’s acupuncture points. He discovered that higher or lower readings than “normal” at the particular acupuncture point indicate degeneration or low energy flow. These imbalances can indicate the root causes of illnesses that are unexplainable by modern biochemistry-based medicine. Based on Dr. Voll’s work, a new field of energy medicine was developed in Europe.

Acupuncture Meridian Assessment can help physicians gather more data about the patient to better understand the patient’s health and body, and monitor the patient’s energy level and balance during treatment, as they return to the desired level. It assists in determining the right remedies at the right timing, level and sequence.

Today, EAV devices are widely used in Europe and Asia. In the North America, EAV is still unknown to most medical practitioners and the public. I have been using Acupuncture Meridian Assessment for over 25 years in my practice. I cannot imagine fully understanding my patient’s needs without an EAV device. To me, not using an EAV device as a guiding tool would be like navigating an airplane without radar equipment.

Acupuncture and Energy Medicine are evolving very rapidly. Acupuncture Meridian Assessment is leading the way into the future of medicine. When we can integrate all the above knowledge of ancient wisdom with modern science, there will be a quantum jump in the understanding of the causes of many unexplainable, chronic illnesses from chronic fatigue to environmentally induced illness.

Dr. Dawn Cormier

The purpose of this Disclaimer is to explain to you what Dr. Dawn Cormier, Naturopathic Doctor can do for you and what you can expect. Naturopathic Doctors (NDs) in the province of Ontario are considered primary care physicians and as such have the ability to legally diagnose medical conditions. My practice is aligned with a model of integrative natural and energy healing, which is very different from a conventional disease care model. My approach addresses all aspects of your health and wellbeing. This includes physiological, chemical, metabolic, bioenergetics, mental, emotional and spiritual aspects of your whole system. My philosophy is that you are your own healer and that healing comes from within you. Your innate intelligence and Vital Force will direct your healing at the right level, system, and timing for your needs. This often happens in stages in the capacity to which the body can heal and rebalance function back to homeostasis. I can assist and direct your healing process by evaluating your system via various conventional and alternative functional tests and procedures. Natural therapies and treatments will be advised to support you on your restoration of health and wellbeing specific to your needs, bringing balance and healing to the degree you are able. For a list of services and detailed information on Naturopathic Medicine and what to expect, please visit the website or talk to Dr. Dawn Cormier, ND in your visit.

The natural alternative therapeutics, assessments, evaluations, products and services provided at this office are not intended to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent any disease or medical condition. Rather, the natural therapeutics, and services are meant to address any physical, metabolic, chemical, emotional and bioenergetics imbalances, stressors or blockages that may have an impact on wellness facilitating the body's natural ability to bring itself to homeostasis, which may have an impact on health and well-being. Individual improvement may vary and is dependent on the current state of a person's overall health and an individual's commitment to their personal goals.

Informed Consent for Electro Acupuncture according to Voll (EAV) and Acupuncture Meridian Assessment

I have specifically sought out the services and perspective of Dr. Cormier for the way she practices Alternative Medicine. As part of that service, I understand that she commonly uses an EAV device as part of her evaluation. Dr. Cormier has explained to me and I fully understand the following:

- a) The Vistron EAV device was a Class II Medical Device by health Canada for many years, however no is longer cleared by Health Canada in this regard since 2017. Manufacturer's specifications are for measuring and evaluating various products, incompatibilities and electrical potential on acupuncture points associated with organ function.
- b) The FDA has not approved EAVs for the treatment of any disease or conditions. The EAV device is only approved as a biofeedback device and Ohm meter by the FDA and is not a diagnostic device.
- c) The basic principle of EAVs has been explained in the article "Acupuncture Meridian Assessment-New Medicine Based on Ancient Principles". I have received, read and understood this article.
- d) The procedure is totally non-invasive and uses a probe to measure the skin resistivity at the acupuncture points located on the hands and feet for over 50 meridians, testing minute electro physical signals.
- e) This device is being used for investigational purposes only and is not being interpreted for a conventional diagnosis, however, specifications for this device support its use for diagnosing, treating, mitigating and preventing diseases, disorders or abnormal physical states in human beings.
- f) Dr. Cormier will design a treatment plan based on the EAVs data, physical exam, medical history, standard lab and functional tests.
- g) This device is one of many tools Dr. Cormier uses for evaluation. There are no guarantees of a successful outcome. Dr. Cormier believes that a patient's active and consistent participation in following recommended therapies results in greater and more consistent changes toward health.
- h) I can terminate the EAV evaluation at any time. It was my independent choice whether to see Dr. Cormier and it is always my choice whether to continue with her.

I have fully read and understand the above information, the elements of my informed consent, my rights and responsibilities, and hereby give consent to the use of EAV device.
